GRANTS AVAILABLE YEAR ROUND RELEVANT TO THE NEIGHBOURHOOD HOUSE SECTOR

Updated 1 February 2017

Click on the logos and images below to take you to the websites

Aboriginal Benefits Foundation Grants provides between $500 and $5,000 in funding towards:

1. Seeding grants:
    - to research the relevance and value of new projects that may be ineligible for support from existing agencies
    - to facilitate schemes or projects of benefit to Aboriginal health, welfare or education which have potential for wider application
2. One-off grants in support of:
    - health and well being of artists and their families
    - education through art projects which will benefit health and well being
    - individuals and communities, with a connection to Aboriginal art and/or artists, to meet special needs

Deductible Gift Recipient (DGR) required

Australian Communities Foundation (ACF)
Grants fall broadly into the areas of arts & culture, community development & advocacy, community services & welfare, disability, education, training & employment, environment, health & medical research, overseas aid & development.
Average grant is between $5,000 and $10,000.
Deductible Gift Recipient (DGR) required

Caltex Sponsorship Program is committed to supporting a variety of organisations, events and programs in local communities. Caltex believe it's important to stay in touch with their neighbours and remain committed to their own backyard. Local community-based sponsorship applications should be directed to your local refinery or service station.

City West Water provides services to Melbourne's CBD and inner and western suburbs, and will consider applications for limited financial support at local community levels within our licence area. If your organisation has an event or program which has water, or a water conservation focus, and can offer a positive association with our business, we'd be delighted to consider your application.
Deductible Gift Recipient (DGR) required

EPA Community Funding program invites Victorian communities to develop projects which benefit both the community and the environment affected by a pollution event.

Gandel Philanthropy awards grants up to $40,000 to community organisations to meet the immediate as well as long-term needs within the Australian and Jewish community, in a number of clearly defined areas: Arts & Culture; Education; Health & Medical Research; Community Development; Social Cohesion & Inclusion; and Poverty & Disadvantage. Deductible Gift Recipient (DGR) required

---

Google Ad Grants is the nonprofit edition of AdWords, Google's online advertising tool. Google Ad Grants empowers nonprofit organisations, through $10,000 per month in in-kind AdWords™ advertising, to promote their missions and initiatives on Google search result pages.
Deductible Gift Recipient (DGR) required

Gwen & Edna Jones Foundation prefers to support projects that benefit communities located in the Western District of Victoria in the areas of:
* Health, welfare and education of the incapacitated, impoverished, young or aged
* Advancement of science and education
* Provision of cultural and recreational facilities for the public

Deductible Gift Recipient (DGR) required

Inger Rice Foundation provides grants up to $5,000 to promote children's health, welfare and development. Only for parent/child relationships for children from 0 - 5 years.

The Invergowrie Foundation provides grants up to $15,000 to community organisations to advance the education of girls and women in Victoria with the vision of these grants making a significant impact on their education, enabling access, promoting excellence, advancing leadership and supporting research.

Matana Foundation for Young People's focus is on improving the welfare and wellbeing of young people from severely disadvantaged or marginalised backgrounds.

Deductible Gift Recipient (DGR) required

New Gen Thrive (for existing enterprises) supports social enterprises to achieve their full potential as viable and sustainable organisations. It includes small group training, coaching and access to various tools and resources.

Newsboys Foundation provides grants to community organisations working with disadvantaged young people aged 11 - 18 years in Victoria.

Deductible Gift Recipient (DGR) required

RE Ross Trust

Grants of up to $10,000 may be sought for one year only which includes small grants for capacity building, or; Grants may be sought for periods of up to three years to a maximum of $30,000 per year.

Impact areas include:

* Improved outcomes for the most disadvantaged, vulnerable and marginalised
* Improved outcomes for children and young people at risk (0–18 years)
* Improved access to and achievement of equity and excellence in public education

---

Ritchies Community Benefit Card

Donate a percentage of the money spent by Ritchies customers to their nominated neighbourhood house or community learning centre.

Ask for your free Ritchies Community Benefit Card at your nearest Ritchies supermarket or liquor store!

Sidney Myer Fund & The Myer Foundation

The Education Small Grants Program aims to provide a quick response to community needs and supports projects that:

* disadvantaged young people
* culturally and linguistically diverse young people
* young people in rural and regional communities

The Poverty and Disadvantage Small Grants Program supports:

* communities experiencing social and economic exclusion with particular emphasis on Indigenous Australians
* asylum seekers and refugees, and people living in isolated rural and remote areas of Australia
* children and young people from disadvantaged backgrounds who lack the opportunity to improve their wellbeing
* small, discrete projects that meet the needs of a community

Sunsuper's Dreams for a better world program gives individuals, groups and organisations the opportunity to be awarded a $5,000 grant to help realise a dream for a better world.

Victoria Law Foundation provides small grants up to $5,000 to fund legal projects that help Victorians better understand the law.